It's not expensive No, it doesn't have an unacceptable price if you consider everything it offers, especially compared to the programs broadcast on many TV channels. They vary depending on the subscription you choose, and the following plans are available. In all cases, the first month is free: Basic: for 7.99 € you can watch it on one device. Standard: for €9.99, you can watch it on two HD-quality screens. Premium: for €11.99 you can watch it on four screens in HD and Ultra HD. So there you have an answer to the question How many people can I share my account with?: It depends on the subscription you choose. How come making money is so cheap? This is a great question: how do they manage to monetize the app and make it profitable with so much money movies. The answer can be found in the concept of the long tail, a model that thrives on the Internet and which offers products that are consumed massively and minority products for a lot of different minorities. In other words, thanks to the fact that many different consumers with minority tastes have access to the service, they manage to produce profitable products that did not succeed at the first launch. Therefore, if you are a fan of watching online series and movies on sites like Pordebe, or you spend your life fighting with BitTorrent and malicious download sites full of links, give tv-on-demand services a chance to prove their worth: it's cheap, easy-to-use and legal.
